

It is cruel to promote another industry at the expense and suffering of innocent creatures. Humans are not the only species and should not exploit other species, instead tax dollars should be put to promote a constructive alternative.